PIH marks 10 years since acquiring Downey hospital

This month marked the 10-year anniverary of PIH Health acquiring Downey Regional Medical Center.

DOWNEY – Oct. 1 marked the tenth anniversary since Downey Regional Medical Center became part of the PIH Health network as PIH Health Downey Hospital, the second hospital in the growing healthcare system.

Over the last decade, the hospital has undergone a number of modernization projects to enhance the facility, advance healthcare, and improve the patient experience, and now earns national recognition annually for its optimal use of information technology, best practices, and excellence in care.

"The last 10 years have been focused on the renewal and growth of the Downey hospital for the betterment of its patients and the community," says PIH Health President and CEO, James R. West. "We've come a long way from where we started, and, in keeping with our 'Patients First' vision, we will continue to advance our position as the Downey community's trusted health and wellness partner."

Almost immediately after the hospital joined the network, PIH Health began a stream of short and long-term projects including updates to the hospital's interior and exterior, seismic retrofitting, and improvements to hospital processes. From the welcoming main entrance, spacious and updated waiting areas and hallways, to remodeled patient rooms, cafeteria, and other renovated departments and offices, the Downey hospital has been updated to offer patients and visitors a pleasant and comfortable space to receive the highest quality care and services.

Extensive technological upgrades were also made in the form of the installation of state-of-the-art medical equipment, updates to the hospital's communication and medical software systems, and a modernized wireless infrastructure built to support electronic medical records. These technological enhancements have improved the coordination and delivery of hearts of Bachelor Nation

Donors of all blood types are urged to book a time to give now, especially those with type O blood or those giving platelets.

To encourage more blood and platelet donations, the Red Cross is offering new incentives to donors over the next month. All who come to give Oct. 21-Nov. 9 will receive a $10 gift card by email to a restaurant merchant of their choice to enjoy lunch on the Red Cross. They'll also be automatically entered to win a $5,000 gift card. There will be three lucky winners – one chosen at random each week. Details are available at RedCrossBlood.org/Lunch.

Edith Aguirre, 60, was recently a contestant on ABC's first ever "The Golden Bachelor," the Directly across the hospital campus, the Downey medical current installment of the popular, long-running romance reality television series "The Bachelor."

> A retired realtor, Aguirre has divorced twice. It was her daughter who submitted her application for the Bachelor.

> "I was stunned when they called me. I thought it was a prank; I didn't believe that," said Aguirre. "After the second call, they wanted to get an interview and I was like, 'Okay, this is real."

Aguirre was one of 22 women vying for the affection of 72-year-old bachelor Gerry Turner. In the season premiere, she was the first woman to exit the limo.

"My nerves were going crazy. I was so nervous because this was the first time I was going to meet him," said Aguirre. "Just being on TV, with all these cameras and all that, I was pretty nervous."

She said Turner was "a big ham."

"Looking into his beautiful blue eyes, he just made me feel so comfortable with him," said Aguirre.

Aguirre would greet Turner in Spanish; a very important detail to her.

"I wanted to show that I'm Latina, and that I was representing Latina," said Aguirre.

According to Aguirre, all the ladies on the show were very supportive of one another.

"What we wanted to do is give support. We wanted to make it a change. We wanted to make it a show that was supportive between all us ladies, and that we were going to date one man," said Aguirre. "I was not going to bring no drama, I wanted just to show the love that we got along with everybody."

Despite making it through the first two weeks and feeling like she had a connection with Turner, Aguirre would find herself without one of the coveted roses after week three.

She admits to being surprised at her elimination.

"I was in shock when I didn't get the rose," said Aguirre. "They did interview me after about how I felt. I said I was surprised, but if he didn't see the love that I have in me, I'm sure somebody out there is going to see it."

Still, she says it may have been the perfect time for her to leave.

"Now that I look at it, what happened to me, I guess it was the perfect time for me to leave As that generosity continues, the Red Cross is working around- because if there was not any connection between me and him that I thought I had, then it's the Aguirre hasn't given up on love, either.

"This had not made me feel sour or anything," said Aguirre. "I know deep in my heart that 'he's' out there; I just haven't found him."

While not on the show long, Aguirre managed to swoon an endearing and adoring fanbase, many of which took to X (formerly Twitter) after her elimination.

"GERRY. You fumbled. JUSTICE FOR EDITH," one X user posted.

"I'm convinced Kathy got Edith's rose and now I'm upset again," said another.

Some have even called for Aguirre to make a return to the show down the line, whether it be on Bachelor in Paradise, or as the first ever Golden Bachelorette.

If given the chance, it's an opportunity she is more than willing to accept.

"I would do it again in a heartbeat, but this time I would go back and not be so... reserved," said Aguirre. "I was more reserved than anything else, and I think I need to show a little bit more, the people, that I'm funny too, and that I'm silly, and I love to dance in the kitchen, and laugh, and I didn't show that part of me."

Ultimately, she just wants to show off the love in her heart.

"The only thing I want to do is just show love, I don't want no chaos."

James Richard DeKay October 9, 1941 - October 2, 2023

James Richard DeKay was born Oct, 9, 1941 in Huntington Park, CA, to John Kenneth and Lydia Erma Elfrida DeKay. Soon after, the family moved to a new home construction in Hollydale where Jim grew up. Jim's education consisted of attending Roosevelt (K-6), St John's Lutheran (7-8), Paramount Jr.

(9), Paramount Sr. (10-12) and one year at Compton Junior College. Jim was extremely active his entire life. During his school years he played all sports with his favorites being running track and playing football. Jim loved the outdoors and as a member of the Cub Scouts and Boy Scouts, going on as many campouts as he was able. Twice he completed the Silver Moccasin hike (65 miles) and once the Golden Arrowhead (63 miles).

After school, Jim joined the Air Force in January 1961. During his enlistment he was assigned to be a Crew Chief on a C-124 transport aircraft. Jim was honorably discharged in January 1965. Seven days after his discharge he went to work for Tumpane Mfg., maintaining NASA aircraft at LAX. In February 1969, Jim left Tumpane and went to work for Continental Airlines. Six months later he was promoted to Lead Mechanic and voted to be the IAM union steward for the mechanics.

In 1982, Frank Lorenzo filed bankruptcy and abrogated all Union contracts. In 1984 Jim helped form the Employees Committee and negotiated the first set of nonunion work rules. In 1989, Jim helped organize the Teamsters to represent the Continental Mechanics and was elected to be the Chief Steward. Over the next seven years Jim was instrumental in negotiating three contracts between the Mechanics and Continental.

After 36 years, Jim retired from Continental in November 2006 and went to work for the Teamsters Union as an organizer and negotiator. Jim was instrumental in organizing United and Horizon airlines and negotiated the first Teamsters contract for Horizon Mechs. Jim retired from the Teamsters in 2013.

Jim met his wife Linda at Messiah Lutheran Church in Downey. Their first date was the 10th grade graduation dance at Paramount High School and they dated until they married on May 14, 1966. Jim always said there was no sense dating anyone else as he found the right one the first time around. Jim and Linda went to Solvang on their honeymoon and went fishing at Lake Cachuma. For the next few years, they traveled extensively, Europe, all the southern Canadian Provence's, Quebec, New Brunswick and fishing in British Columbia and Vancouver Island.

Jennifer arrived in December 1972, the cutest little thing in a red dress. As you can imagine, Jim encouraged her to get into sports, which she did and was very good. Jim coached all her teams: volleyball, basketball and her best sport, softball. Jim was the head coach for the Astros, which was the Ponytail softball team Jennifer played on, and the team actually went undefeated two consecutive years. He always said there was nothing like coaching girls. They were competitive on and off the field.

Alexis was born December 10, 2009 and was a true inspiration to Jim. He was so proud of all her accomplishments. He loved spending time with Alexis, whether they were working in the garden, repairing fences, or riding around the golf cart at LA Sporting Clays, he also enjoyed taking her whale watching, riding amusement park rides at Knott's Berry Farm, trips to the aquarium, dinners at Golden Coral, and many more countless excursions. Jim celebrated his 80th birthday, doing what he loved the most, coaching - only this time it was Alexis' ponytail softball team, the BombSquad.

Jim loved to sing. He was in the choir at Paramount High School and Messiah Lutheran Church for many years. He was asked to sing at many weddings, including Jennifer's.

As stated earlier, Jim loved the outdoors and spent as much time as he could hunting and fishing. Deer, elk, antelope, ducks, geese, pheasants, quail, doves... there was always something in the freezer. His favorite pastime was long range fishing. At least three trips a year 15 -17 days on the ocean at a time, searching for giant Yellowfin tuna, Wahoo, etc.

Jim is survived by his wife Linda, daughter Jennifer, granddaughter Alexis, sister Joan, brother John and several nieces and nephews.

A Celebration of Life will be held on January 20, 2024 at Messiah Lutheran Church in Downey.

150 years of newspaper coverage

Downey has benefited from having its own newspaper for 150 years; not many communities can say the same.

By Alex Dominguez Staff Writer

DOWNEY – Since the city's founding 150 years ago, there has been a newspaper in some shape or form covering Downey.

That is no small stat to wink at.

According to longtime Downey Patriot editor Eric a community like ours," said Pierce, the difference between community newspapers and larger publications comes down newspapers, they just don't to the level of coverage.

"I think it's kind of cool when you open the paper on a

Pierce said that bigger papers "are not going to come into Downey" barring extreme circumstances.

"For the most part, a paper like the LA Times, they don't have the resources to cover Pierce. "In LA County alone there's 88 cities, and bigger have the staff to cover every community. That's where smaller newspapers like ours

"Every once in a while, we'll get a bigger newspaper come Henry Eberle found some in – we've had the Washington Post come into Downey to do a paper – and it's exciting, but then they leave, and what's going to happen after they leave? We need newspapers to cover the day-to-day of what's going on...There's a lot going on in Downey, believe it or not. Finding things to write about is not difficult; there's news happening, you just have to be involved and know what's going on.

Downey's coverage began in 1875 with the Downey Courier, established by Alonzo Waite, a Maine native who started off as a printer in 1854 for Los Angeles' first paper, the Los Angeles Star.

The Courier resided in one of Downey's first buildings, The Central Hotel, which was erected in 1875 near the Southern Pacific Railroad tracks. It published every Saturday, and eventually expanded to the Los Nietos Valley Courier in 1876.

As the community around it grew, however, so did the competition.

In 1879, Santa Monica news editor L.T. Fisher brought his paper, the Outlook. Downey's second newspaper would quickly disappear from the scene.

The Courier would suffer a similar fate, ceasing in 1881. Publishers Samuel H. Purcell and J.M. Emmert opened the Downey Signal the following year, however it too would fold in 1895, following Emmert's descent into poor health.

In 1885, Superior Court judge and L.A. County district attorney James C. Rives - the builder of the Rives Mansion established the Downey Weekly Review. It too would be a shortlived endeavor, folding in in 1887 after Rives left his paper to #### pursue law career.

Pennsylvania native Charles success in 1888 with the Downey Champion, albeit the Champion was initially established to "champion" the agendas of the Democratic party. Nevertheless, it went on to become Downey's longest lasting newspaper.

That wouldn't stop others from popping up.

In 1898, the Downey Mirror was published by M. M. Purcell and Jessie McCoy. The Downey Dispatch was brought forth by C.A. Seay and C. C. Arrowsmith in 1902, publishing for five years until November 1907.

The Downey News came next, in 1910, thanks to printer H. Hull, and in 1914 merged with the Champion. Upon the Merger, Eberly retired, giving Hull the reins.

The Downey Eagle was established in 1914 by J. Ed Van Matre. In 1918, Van Matre bought the champion.

There was some turbulence in the transaction, however, as prominent employee Knowles C. Weiss' wife Fannie parted company with Van Matre after an alleged disagreement. Soon after, the Weiss family published more conservative tilt.

Karnopp published the Champion alongside Southeast News from the same headquarters for four years. In 1958, the Champion and Southeast News merged and became a Monday-Friday paper owned by John Dennis.

Operating as the Southeast News, the paper covered Downey, Norwalk, Bellflower, Paramount, Pico Rivera and Santa Fe Springs. It closed in 1985.

The News Tribune (published by Joseph S. Bianchi) followed. Then came the Eagle, a weekly newspaper published by Jerry Andrews from March 5, 1993 until March 29, 2002.

That brings the story to current day, and the Downey Patriot which rose from the ashes of the Eagle in May 2001.

Publishing for over 21 years, the Patriot was established Adams. In 2006, when Adams' Parkinson's Disease, he sold the company to current publisher Jennifer Dekay, a Downey native and 1990 Downey High School graduate.

That brings us to today.

In the online age, most have the Downey LiveWire, with a turned away from newspapers in favor of quicker, more immediate access.

That is, except for the expansive paper that covered Downey Patriot, according to DeKay.

"I think media in general has taken a different shift. I think in order to stay relevant you VanMatresoldtheChampion have to stay consistent, and not looking for. They want quick and easy, and that's maybe not sitting down and reading the paper, except in Downey. People say print is dying, and I would the agree with them, except in this city."

> DeKay lauded the support that the Patriot has received from the community, saying that "The Downey Patriot is still regarded as a very good source of information."

> "I believe that the Downey Patriot has a brand that other companies – I don't necessarily want to say should be envious of - but we are very fortunate to have the brand that we do, and we've worked very hard on making that brand very prominent in the city."

When asked about the Patriot's role in the legacy of Downey news coverage, DeKay said "it's a lot of pressure," but also called it an honor.

"It's a lot of pressure only because you don't want that piece of the legacy to end; you don't want to be the reason why by veteran news editor John it ended," said DeKay. "That's why it's so important to stay health started to decline due to relevant. Downey has such a diverse community in ages, and you want to make sure that newspaper is read by the youth as well as generations before them."

> DeKay said that "there is always going to be news" in Downey, as long as there is business, government, and a school system.

> "At the end of the day, the biggest difference between community newspapers and national newspapers, or multicity newspapers, is reporters are stretched thin - even in our company, they're stretched thin – but you can always look to the Downey Patriot for what is happening in that city. As long as there's a city of Downey, there's always going to be news, and hopefully we will be the ones providing it to you."

Newsom puts himself before California

Newsom's vetoes indicate he is trying to appeal to voters nationally.

By Jill Filipovic

Jill Filipovic is a journalist and author of the book "OK Boomer, Let's Talk: How My Generation Got Left Behind."

What does California Gov. Gavin Newsom actually stand for? He leads the state with the largest economy in the US, and one of the largest in the world. Back when he was mayor of San Francisco, he ordered the issuance of marriage licenses to same-sex couples, in defiance of state law and more than a decade before the Supreme Court legalized same-sex marriage nationwide. During the Trump era, he grabbed headlines as a liberal counterweight to the former president, a telegenic and bright young man on the rise. And now, he's grabbing headlines again by vetoing more than 100 bills passed by the California legislature.

It's hard to know what exactly Newsom is playing at. But one thing seems clear: He's a man who puts his own political future ahead of the will of the people. And right now, he seems to think it's politically beneficial to maintain the status quo, regardless of what many Californians actually want.

Newsom vetoed many bills that are either common sense, wildly popular or both. One would have made insulin more affordable, capping prices at $35 for a 30day supply. Another would have put free condoms in public high schools, and banned retailers from refusing to sell young people condoms. Another would have outlawed caste discrimination, which many South Asians say is troublingly common in the workplace. He also vetoed several drug-related bills, including one that would have allowed cannabis cafes and another that would have decriminalized the possession and personal use of hallucinogenics.

While a lot of these bills may not fly in the deep South, they're unremarkable in progressive California, and were on Newsom's desk in the first place because the state legislature put them there — ostensibly carrying out the will of California voters.

It's tough to explain the veto spree, unless Newsom is thinking as much about voters outside of California as within it.

Not all of the bills on Newsom's desk were vetoed. He signed one to ban four common but potentially harmful chemicals in food, and others to require businesses disclose their carbon emissions and school buses go electric by 2035. Several environmental protection bills came across his desk, and he put his signature on many of them.

But he vetoed others. And generally, Newsom used his pen to keep change from happening.

Why? He largely says money: California can't afford a bunch of new or expanded services, and some of the bills, he claims, will actually create more downstream costs for consumers. Newsom said prohibiting caste discrimination was "unnecessary" because "California already prohibits discrimination based on sex, race, color, religion, ancestry, national origin, disability, gender identity, sexual orientation, and other characteristics, and state law specifies that these civil rights protections shall be liberally construed." On vetoing cannabis cafes, Newsom expressed concern that "this bill could undermine California's long-standing smoke-free workplace protections."

Not all of Newsom's vetoes here are bad ones. But their volume paints a picture of a man who is taking great care not to rock the boat, and not to have any unpopular legislation tied back to him — which certainly suggests national ambitions.

Newsom is far from the first person to politically shapeshift or put attention-seeking over job-doing. And he was never a far-left progressive. But the kind of moral courage on display when he stood up for same-sex couples well before doing so was politically palatable has been conspicuously absent in recent years.

None of us can read Newsom's mind. Maybe he really doesn't have national ambitions, and is making these veto decisions based on what he believes is best for California, not based on what's best for his own political future. But this playbook — liberal governor of a liberal state moves toward the middle in an effort to appeal to voters nationwide — isn't exactly novel.

It is disappointing, though. And it's unclear if it will actually work in today's unpredictable political climate.

The days of young(ish) handsome men of privilege charming their way into political office by saying whatever it is they think voters want to hear seem to be waning. There are a great many moderate Democrats out there, and their votes do win elections — just look at President Joe Biden. But I imagine these voters also want a president with vision. At the very least, voters want to know who, exactly, they're voting for. And with this spree of keep-things-the-same vetoes, Newsom doesn't answer that question.

Why we're supporting Dorothy Pemberton

Dear Editor:

We are working to help elect Dorothy Pemberton for Downey City Council as the District 3 representative.

Why would we do that? Well, as we all saw before the recall, each city council member's vote affects the entire city. At this time, Downey cannot afford to elect an unknown.

We know Dorothy. We encouraged her to run for city council. We have watched her give her life and time to our city. She has worked tirelessly for 30 years in leadership of numerous civic organizations such as PTA President, Soroptimist, Gangs out of Downey, the PTA Helps Room and many others. She is endorsed by retired Downey PD Captain Mark McDaniel along with current Mayor Claudia Frometa and former Mayor Rick Rodriguez. She is a team player and gets things done.

Gil Legaspi is an unknown. He originally campaigned as a police officer when he is in fact a reservist for LAPD, working only a few days a month. He issued campaign literature in uniform, standing in front of the Downey mural; this was also misleading. He has in the last few weeks changed his political party affiliation, implying originally that he was a Republican, when he is listed as a Democrat and now has reregistered as "Declined to State". Who does that in the middle of a campaign?

Additionally, he has voted in only one of the past eight major elections.

Recent revelations regarding his relationship with District #5 Downey City Council member Mario Trujillo are concerning. Over 60% of his campaign contributions have come from outside of Downey. Los Angeles County Supervisor Janice Hahn has appointed him to the L A County Tax Assessment Appeals Board. Who is he trying to be? Not the well connected, commercial investment real estate broker and property manager he is. We do not need someone in this seat that is looking for a leg up politically or financially. We've seen that before. We need our next city council member to be there for us, for the many needs of the residents of Downey.

Do California Democrats believe that representation matters, or do they just pretend to? We're about to get our answer.

The death on Sept. 29 of longtime Democratic senator Dianne Feinstein opens up a racial and gender quagmire that is sure to bedevil Democrats for many months to come. Early this month, California Gov. Gavin Newsom (D) appointed Laphonza Butler, a Black lesbian and president of Emily's List, to the Senate at least until the upcoming special election (November 2024) to fill the remainder of Feinstein's term. But that hardly settles the question of who Feinstein's long-term successor will be. Two prominent Democratic members of Congress — Reps. Katie Porter and Adam Schiff — had already launched candidacies for Feinstein's seat in anticipation of her retirement. Rep. Barbara Lee joined the race shortly after Feinstein officially announced her retirement.

Time and again, it has been shown that Black women are the heart and soul of the Democratic Party. Democrats across the country agree that Black women are badly underrepresented in our nation's leadership. Schiff and Porter are White; Lee is a Black woman. The right course

The Downey Patriot is published weekly by The Downey Patriot, Inc. Controlled Distribution, 25,000 copies are printed. Distributed by CIPS Marketing Group, Inc., Los Angeles, CA. It would be, anyway, if the participants had the courage and principles to follow it: Schiff and Porter should step aside and reembrace their vital leadership roles in the House. And the rest of the state's Democratic leaders should walk their talk and throw their clout behind Lee's bid for the state's full six-year seat in the Senate.

Why is electing a Black woman to the Senate in California a moral imperative?

Consider the numbers: Before becoming vice president in 2021, Kamala D. Harris was just the second Black woman ever to serve in the Senate, after Sen. Carol Moseley Braun (D-Ill.) in the 1990s. With Butler's appointment, that's three Black women in more than two centuries.

Further, Democrats' tributes to Feinstein's life and legacy illustrate their belief in the importance of representation of marginalized groups in the country's top deliberative bodies. California Lt. Gov. Eleni Kounalakis noted that Feinstein "broke marble ceilings for the rest of us" and "inspired women like me to leadership." Former House speaker Nancy Pelosi — Feinstein's fellow San Franciscan and herself a trailblazing woman in politics — said Feinstein's "extraordinary career will continue to inspire countless young women and girls to pursue public service for generations to come."

Another reason to choose Lee: Two-thirds of California residents identify as people of color. A partnership of Lee and Sen. Alex Padilla, who is Hispanic, would give powerful voice in Washington to their interests.

There's something else, perhaps the most important thing, which is that she has proved to be an effective legislator who can work across the aisle on a variety of issues while maintaining her progressive values. She has worked with Republicans on matters of foreign policy and gun reform; her career is marked by unwavering and unapologetic support of police accountability, reparations, immigration reform and environmental justice — issues that are critical to Californians. Many politicians talk about courage, but Lee is the real deal.

California's Democratic leaders have an opportunity to do more than pay lip service to their rhetoric around diversity. It wouldn't hurt to remind them that Harris gave up one of California's seats to serve the country. They need to know, and show, that forcing genuine equality isn't easy or comfortable. It requires hard decisions, especially for White people who might have to disappoint their friends or sacrifice their egos and ambitions for the sake of the larger cause. Dorothy has been here for us for years. Dorothy knows Downey and that's what we need at this important time.

Poor voting record

Dear Editor:

As a registered voter in District 3, I received a letter from the former recall committee mentioning Gil Legaspi's voting record.

I read that he has only voted one time in the last eight elections. I find this appalling and shameful, particularly for someone who touts his involvement in law enforcement. He doesn't seem to care enough to vote for the laws that have a high impact on law enforcement personnel. Gil is a reservist for LAPD.

This, in my opinion, speaks volumes about what he does and does not find important.

Mr. Legaspi certainly has not earned my vote.

Cudahy needs a newspaper

Dear Editor:

Congratulations to the City of Downey for having newspaper coverage for the past 150 years.

I sure hope the residents of Downey appreciate the coverage as many cities in the southeast have absolutely no coverage. Here in Cudahy, we have not had any type of paper print for years.

A local newspaper can strengthen a community as well as being a great resource. Newspapers have played a vital role in their communities for decades, providing a go-to resource for local readers and businesses.

Hoping one day we in Cudahy can have a newspaper we can call our own.

Speeders beware: cameras coming to local cities

■ Long Beach, Glendale and Los Angeles will begin installing traffic cameras to catch speeders.

By City News Service

LONG BEACH – As soon as next year, drivers in Los Angeles, Long Beach and Glendale could be getting speeding tickets in the mail under a pilot speed-camera bicyclists. program that was signed into law Friday by Gov. Gavin Newsom.

Newsom put his signature to AB 645, which creates a pilot program allowing six California cities to install speed cameras in "high-accident" corridors, school zones or areas frequented by street racers.

"Slowing cars is imperative to saving lives," the bill's author, Assemblywoman Laura Friedman, D-Burbank, said in a statement last month when the bill was approved by the Legislature.

She said deaths caused by speeding have been incorrectly labeled as "accidents" for too long, adding, "These deaths are communities from traffic preventable.'

Under the legislation, the pilot program will allow the six cities to install a limited number of cameras designed to photograph and generate speeding tickets that are then mailed to offenders. In addition to Los Angeles, Long Beach and Glendale, the pilot program will also be operated in Oakland, San Francisco and San Jose.

According to Friedman's office, statistics from the Los Angeles County Department of Public Health show that motor vehicle accidents are the leading cause of death for people under

According to Friedman's office, New York City saw a 73% reduction in speeding after introducing speed cameras.

Damian Kevitt, founder of the Los Angeles-based roadsafety advocacy group Streets Are For Everyone, was a major backer of the legislation and hailed its approval.

"Reckless speeding has created a public health crisis on our roads," Kevitt said in a statement Friday night. "While city and county officials go through the very slow and expensive process of reengineering streets to make them safer in the future, we need a way to protect our violence right now. AB 645 is part of that solution."

According to Kevitt, tickets generated by the speed cameras

DOMESTIC TERRORISM

The new Domestic Terrorism, Mind Control

What is happening is a mind controlling of people. This is the most dangerous thing anyone could have done to them. Mind controlling by terrorist is very dangerous because the people being affected are unaware, they are under a mind controlling spell. I began noticing the mental change with my friends around June 2022. It began with Officer Nadal from the Signal Hill Police Department 90755. Nadal and his police friends tried to sneak up on me and enter my house. I was gone on that day. He tried again. I looked out the window. I wouldn't let him in my house. I told him I would speak with him when I hired a lawyer. Since that time, I've been unable to hire a lawyer. I'm still trying to hire a lawyer. I spoke with lawyers that will take my money. Then they make up excuses why they won't work for me. This is in my book: Donald Trump's Koward Kommunist K**ts.

I tried many different ways to advertise my political book, The Washington Mafia. The book is PG rated. The Long Beach newspaper, the beachcomber, was the only newspaper that I could get into to place an ad. The Downey Patriot is the second newspaper that would let me place an ad.

The mind controlling of people affects my family and friends. I can't talk about my book. I'm hated by everyone. I'm afraid of speaking with the police about this. I tried talking with the Washington DC Capitol Police, twice. The Signal Hill Police Department are terrorist. I told the Signal Hill City Council about their police. They did nothing. The Signal Hill City Council are terrorist. All the lawyers that have been mind controlled, turn their backs on me. Everyone that has been affected by this mind control won't, or can't, talk to me about my book. Once you're affected, or infected, it's terminal. It's very dangerous. I have evidence since April 2022 of what I'm writing here about. I have tried every day to contact higher law enforcement to help me with this. I'm asking everyone reading here to get me the California Attorney General Rob Bonta and every higher-level law enforcement. This communism, and terrorism, are real. It has to be exposed. It has to be stopped. It is very dangerous to everyone.

A MAN DOES NOT ASSAULT A WOMAN

Donald Trump stated, "It's okay that celebrities grab woman's 'private area." No, it's not. Donald Trump sexually assaulted a woman in a department store dressing room. In a 'dressing room' is evidence of a serial rapist.

The rule of law states, 'Don't touch the girl.' The girl is the shopper. It is what a girl does. I

Congressman Kevin McCarthy, Texas governor Gregg Abbott, and

Texas Attorney general Ken Paxton are Trump's main drug smugglers. Because they are in Donald Trump's criminal empire, Roger Stone, Steve Bannon, Mike Flynn, Mark Meadows, Steve Miller. With all the wacky people that the republican party has in congress, Kevin McCarthy attacked congressman Madison Cawthorn for talking about cocaine orgies in Washington DC. That earned McCarthy the name Cocaine Kevin McCarthy. I have to believe that Gregg Abbott's migrant buses have migrants and Trump drugs driven into the United States.

The following are some of the drug traffickers residing in the United States: Judge Lydia Liberio at Long Beach (CA) Courthouse. Attorney Adrian Woodward, Attorney Tom Armstrong, Attorney Dan Cislo, LA, Attorney Jose Rodriquez, Attorney Steve Lopez, Florence Ave Downey CA, Attorney Janet Contero, the secretaries at 333 W. Broadway suite 200, Long Beach CA, the secretaries at Dixon & Daley, Sante Fe Springs CA. Bradley from Mike Levin's campaign for congressman.

Signal Hill City Council (90755); Mayor Keir Jones, vice mayor Tina Hanson, councilmembers, Robert Copeland, Lori Wilson, Edward Wilson. The Signal Hill Police Department. Officer Nadal is the name I have all evidence on, but the whole department are trafficking in Trump's border wall drugs. The Washington DC Capital Police Department. The officers in the police station on the morning of August 7, 2023. The officers in front of the Capitol on the afternoon of May 14, 2022. Rachel Hill, and others, from the AD Leaf website social media company. There are other social media sites that are tied to Donald Trump's international drug cartel.

Newspaper drug traffickers, L.A. Times ad agent Danille Dowrich, Southern California News Group ad agent Sari Montrone. L.A. Focus news person Kisha Smith. Simon Cazeraz, a Keller Williams realty broker, Torance CA. Frank Fraraccio, Cranston Rhode Island. David Pettinato, retired Cranston Fire Chief, 16 Gleason Street, Cranston Rhode Island. WJAR TV, Cranston Rhode Island, The Providence Journal, Providence Rhode Island. Kenneth Sicknick, Milltown NJ, Sandra Garza, Springfield VA. Jay Beeler of 'the beachcomber' Long Beach newspaper.

There are many employees at the United States Post Office, the United Parcel Service, Federal Express, and DHL. Alfredo Gonzales at the Paramount CA post office, 90723.

Companies harboring drug traffickers: Chase Bank, Spectrum, Office of the Chief Trial Council in Los Angeles. All State Insurance. Trump's drug traffickers spoke about me before I arrived at the California Democratic Party at the Los Angeles Convention Center on May 27, 2023.

Definition of 'racketeering'. Matt Gaetz stood before a national news camera, with regards to his alleged sex trafficking charge, "I have the support of Marjorie Taylor Greene and President Donald Trump." Racketeering is using political influence to escape a criminal felony charge.

Where are the never Trumper's and other democrat organizations in the Los Angeles area? Contact them for me, please. I have more people to add above, with contact information. I am Peter Gazerro, I swear under penalty of political perjury that what is written here is correct.

PETER GAZERRO: AUTOBIOGRAPHY FORWARD

I am Peter Gazerro. I am an electrician. When I saw Laura Ingraham interviewing a person that spoke with Ashli Babbitt at the chaos on Jan 6th (Ashli was shot and died). I thought to myself, 'The audacity of that Fox TV anchor to raise her ratings by speaking with people that SHE incited. Fox cable News is a main reason Jan 6th happened. Fox cable News does a 'television hypnoses' to its audience. I was angered. I cleared my calendar the day before the Super Bowl, 2/12/2022. At 7am I took out my laptop and began typing about Laura. I used Alanis Morrissette's song, Ironic, to make my point.

believe it is hereditary from the planet Venus. When you see a girl and you are interested in her, you stand down and wait. In all cases, the girl shops for you. If the girl does not pick you, you remain a can of soup on a grocery store shelf. The best thing you can do is to wait for the next shopper to come along. You might want to pursue the first girl. You could move to a new store, change your packaging, or discount yourself. Discounting is easy. First, buy the girl diamond earrings. Girls like to accessorize. Compliment the earrings with a diamond necklace. A diamond bracelet is another accessory. Of course, this could set you back $60 grand, and it does not permit you to touch the girl. The best protocol is to wait until the next shopper comes along.

Another good rule to follow with the girl is don't tell her you use 'Total T' by Nugenix. This is a product promoted by 'doctor' Frank Thomas, the X baseball player. Total T is supposed to give you nuclear nuts. I don't believe any female would think that nuclear nuts are an attractive characteristic in a man. In the commercial, Frank Thomas states, "She'll like it too." That statement could only be true if the complimentary bottle comes with a $500 Louis Vuitton handbag.

On Jan 6th, Donald Trump stood on a stage with 12 others, I titled them the Capitol Killer 12, and directed angry people to go to the Capitol and fight to save our country. The stage show was an organized event. The event was to commit a crime. Jan 6th was an organized crime by the organized crime organizer, Donald Trump. If Jan 6th was a Michael Corleone event, or a Tony Soprano event, or a John Gotti event, those guys would be in prison for life. Brian Sicknick's death is, according to medical reports, caused by Jan 6th. The medical report states Brian died of a heart attack from the chaos on Jan 6th. Ashli Babbitt was shot while trying to climb through a doorway. Both deaths are caused by the people that stood on the stage directing the angry people to enter the Capitol. Donald Trump and the Capitol Killer 12 rehearsed what they were going to say. The stage show was set up with the opening act, several intermediate acts, and the headliner, Donald Trump. The event was a kill and be killed event to keep Trump's paycheck and the other incompetent employees* he hired. Donald Trump and the Capitol Killer 12 shall be charged with the first-degree murder and conspiracy to commit first-degree murder on Brian Sicknick. They shall be charged with first-degree murder and conspiracy to commit first-degree murder on Ashli Babbitt.

JUSTICE FOR BRIAN SICKNICK AND ASHLI BABBITT

*The average pay for a White House employee is $155,000 per year. With the perks of working in the White House, Trump's employees made around $1 million for Trump's 4-year term. That's great pay for a person that is qualified to make around $35,000 per year. Many of Trump's employees made much more than $1 million. Don Jr and Eric Trump now live in mansions.

'That's Trump' is a great song with bad vocals.

The definition of racketeering is using political influence to get out of a crime. Matt Gaetz, with regard to his sex trafficking charge said, "I have the backing of Marjorie Taylor Greene and President Donald Trump." Matt Gaetz sex trafficking charge has been dropped.

South Dakota Governor Kristie Noem. Kristie Noem doubles as a National Infectious Health doctor. July 2021 at the CPAC Kristie said, "Dr. Fauci is wrong a lot. Joe Biden is destroying this country." I'm a visual person. I pictured Joe Biden as a giant lizard crushing buildings in New York City. Jodzilla Biden. Kristie Noem recently said, "Old white men are not the only NRA. I am NRA. I bought my 2-year-old granddaughter a rifle and handgun." I am Peter Gazerro, an electrician. I've done lots of repairs from people tripping electrical circuit breakers. I know that Governor Kristie Noem is a mental breaker tripper. Siemens Company is a superior electrical switchgear company. With the quality of Siemens breakers and Kristie Noem be a spokeswoman for the Siemens Company. Kristie could stand aside a commercial standup unit and say, "No matter how you spell it, Siemens is great stuff."

Little miss TV Fox sent a girl to die. She had her family on air and pretended to cry. When the cameras rolled back, she saw her ratings went high. Isn't she pathetic. Don't you think?

Sean Hannity's pay is what I'm reaching for. I don't care what happened on the Capital floor. Trump killed a cop, but don't tell the law. My angle is only ratings.

I continued with recrafting of Ironic and other songs. I researched the death of Brian Sicknick. A 42-year-old policeman died of a heart attack. Cause of death 'directly related to the events at the Capitol'. I researched everything I wrote about. I went to Barnes and Noble to look for pictures of politicians. I saw 'Helter Skelter', book by Los Angeles prosecutor, Vincent Bugliosi. I read the book when it came out around 1972. In his book he wrote what he addressed to the jury, referring to those who were killed, "(they) aren't here with us now, in this courtroom, but from their graves they cry out for justice." That stuck with me. I thought the same about Brian and Ashli. Charles Manson sent some people out to do a heinous act. They didn't know where they were going or who the people were at Sharon Tate's house in the Hollywood Hills. 'Tex' Watson walked up to Steven Parent, who was sitting in his car. Tex shot and killed an 18-yearold innocent person. That bullet that killed Steven Parent was charged to Charles Manson. Manson was tried, convicted, and sentenced to death by a Los Angeles jury. California commuted the death penalty. The bullet that killed Ashli Babbitt came from Donald Trump. The events of the crimes on Jan 6th were directed by Donald Trump. The same as the events of the crimes in August 1969. If Donald Trump didn't arrange Jan 6th, and if Fox cable News didn't incite anger to its audience, Brian Sicknick and Ashli Babbitt would be alive. The people that came to the Capitol on Jan 6th didn't know the people in the Capitol. They didn't know the policemen. Donald Trump described the people working in the Capitol inaccurately. Donald Trump doesn't know most people that were in the Capitol or the people that showed up that day. Some people were chanting, "Where's Nancy (Pelosi)?" Why? They don't know Nancy. I want to introduce you to Congresswoman Nancy Pelosi. Nancy is a girl with a job. Donald Trump doesn't like Nancy because she won't agree with Trump. That isn't her job. Nancy's job is a United States Congresswoman. She writes and discusses and approves legislation for the people in the United States of America.

I wrote on many subjects in the four books. The last book, Book 4, Donald Trump's Koward Kommunist Kunts details my first year under Donald Trump's communism. In The Washington Mafia, I wrote about Trump's border wall being a drug cartel. It has to be true. Donald Trump's communist haven't left me alone. They don't want my books read to anyone. They have silenced me since April 23, 2022. This is the first time I'm getting my books out. Donald Trump's terrorist do a 'mind control' thing on people. Most of the friends I had, hate me or my books. I am hated by postal employees. I listed the lawyers in book 4. I can't hire a lawyer or mail anything that has to do with my books or the people in them. Trump's terrorist are the most dangerous people on the planet. The people that get their mind's controlled don't know it. I don't know what is programmed into these people. They might go off on a crazy violent rage, at any time. The mind control thing doesn't wear off. I have to stop it. I have to get my books read to everyone including all media.

There is one thing that you'll understand after you read all the books. On February 12, 2022, at 7am, I had my writing partner. I titled book 2, The Correction with my name, The Typist. After I wrote The Washington Mafia, I looked at it and thought 'I didn't write that.' I typed it. Ashli Babbitt was sent to die by Fox cable News. She was murdered on Jan 6th, 2021, by Donald Trump. Ashli moved in with me on February 12, 2022, 7am. When you read all the books, you'll understand about United States Military Ashli. I dropped her married name. He marriage certificate states, 'til death do you part.' Since Ashli moved in, I've had a life that no one could imagine. Now, understandably, I'm in love with United States Military Ashli. This is the biggest story in world history. Ashli is here to get JUSTICE FOR BRIAN SICKNICK AND ASHLI BABBITT

Downey marks 150 years

By Mayor Claudia M. Frometa

As your Mayor, I had the distinct honor of welcoming our community and former Mayors to a milestone celebration – the 150th anniversary of Downey's founding on October 13, 1873.

From its earliest days, Downey stood out as a special place, one which promised a "future unlimited". John Gately Downey, an Irish immigrant who arrived in California during the Gold Rush and becoming Governor, laid the foundation of what was to become Downey. The area grew with new residents attracted by the fertility of the land and pleasant climate.

Many years later, the arrival and development of the aviation industry paved Downey's place in history. Vultee, which produced 15% of all military aircraft during a pivotal time for our nation, became part of North American Aviation, later North American Rockwell, and then Rockwell International. As the birthplace of the Apollo Space Program, Downey is linked to two of the most defining moments in aerospace history, the Apollo 11, when humans first landed on the moon, and the Apollo 13, the aborted mission to the moon that exemplified the astounding power of the human spirit and teamwork.

The week-long celebration of our City's founding was a wonderful opportunity for the entire community to come together to celebrate our rich history. I hope you made it out to the Downey History Center, Downey Cemetery, Columbia Memorial Space Center, and other sites last week; but if you didn't, please do so in the future and take your friends and family. Let's continue to treasure and preserve our history so our children and future generations can find inspiration knowing where we came from and how far Downey and they can continue to go. We celebrated our Downey's past, marveled at our innovation over the years and still believe our Future Is Unlimited!

A special thank you to our city staff, the organizations that participated on the week-long celebration and our community residents for attending.

Thank you to former Mayors Mario G. Guerra and Keith McCarthy for their attendance along with DUSD Board President Giggy Perez-Saab. Thank you also to our Assemblymember Blanca Pacheco, also a former Downey Mayor, for her continued support.

POET'S CORNER

Afterword

Reading what I have just written, I now believe I stopped precipitously, so that my story seems to have been slightly distorted, ending, as it did, not abruptly but in a kind of artificial mist of the sort sprayed onto stages to allow for difficult set changes.

Why did I stop? Did some instinct discern a shape, the artist in me intervening to stop traffic, as it were?

... Mist covered the stage (my life). Characters came and went, costumes were changed, my brush hand moved side to side far from the canvas, side to side, like a windshield wiper...

I hadn't moved. I felt the desert stretching ahead, stretching (it now seems) on all sides, shifting as I speak, so that I was constantly face to face with blankness, that stepchild of the sublime, which, it turns out, has been both my subject and my medium.

Shall I be raised from death, the spirit asks. And the sun says yes. And the desert answers your voice is sand scattered in wind.

Louise Glück, Poetry, 2012

Glück, America's Nobel Literature Prize winner in 2020 for her "voice of austere beauty and insight into loneliness," has died at 80. She wrote this 11 years ago. "Yes, the world is falling apart," she said in a 2022 interview with the Nation's Sam Huber. "But here we all are, we're still alive. And a sense of possibility emerges from that fact." Poetry Matters is curated by Lorine Parks.
